We will introduce you to the realm of creative writing and how to publish bestselling novels in various genres. This course has been carefully designed by professionals from John Academy who excel in the field of writing and publishing.

You will begin by exploring the various motivations that create a world-class novelist. Then we will discuss the ideal environment a writer needs to produce their best work and explore multiple narrative genres. Following that, we will teach you how to generate an idea for your novel. We will address the process of effective research through various media and extract valuable information for your book. Then we will explore formulating your first draft, editing and finalising your work.
